The tallying committee must read the ballots out loud for the elections of Faith, Recorder or Treasurer .

If there is a majority vote then continue on with the election of the next office. If there is not an election, start over with..

WA: "There has been not election for the office of _____ (Faith, Recorder, Treasurer) does anyone wish to decline?"

W.A.: "The second ballot for Faith is now open."

Votes are to be read aloud and if no majority ...

W.A.: "The third ballot for Faith is now open." (If after the third Ballot, an election has not been reached, the Mother Advisor, in the interest of time, can decrease the candidates to the three with the most number of ballots).

W.A.: “ The _____ ballot for Faith is now open.” (continue until an elections has been reached).

W.A.: " _____ you have been elected Faith, do you accept?"

The following offices are one year terms and are elected at the January election.

W.A.: “The ballot is open for the office of Recorder." (see Faith)

W.A.: “The ballot is open for the office Treasurer." (see Faith)

W.A.: "This concludes Elections." 1 RAP

W.A.: “Tallying Committee, you will destroy the ballots. Thank you for your service”
