

What'd She Say?

When you first join Rainbow, there will be terms and phrases that you may or may not know. Below are a few of them with a definition to help you out! If there are others that we've not included, please ask any of the Rainbow Girls or your Mother Advisor!

Advisory Board: The "Advisory Board" is a group of adults that support the Rainbow girls. The Mother Advisor is a member of this board. These adults help transport girls as well as to guide and encourage.

Assembly: When you hear the word "assembly," they are referring to our specific group of girls or chapter.

Big Sisters/Little Sisters: This is a pairing of "old" Rainbow girls (those who have been in Rainbow for a while) with "new" Rainbow girls (those who are fairly new to the assembly). A Big Sister can help you with all sorts of information that you might need or want to know. Ask her lots of questions!

Confidential Observer: This is a newsletter distributed by the Grand Assembly to every Rainbow girl. Read it carefully for fun information.

Day of Instruction: The "Day of Instruction" is a day held at one of the temples of the assemblies in our District. This important day is a time when Rainbow girls from one or more assemblies of our district get to learn and "fine-tune" all ritual skills.

District: "District" refers to a group of assemblies that get together on occasion. Ours is a combination of Renton, Issaquah, Bellevue, Kirkland, Snohomish, and Bothell. Ours is called District 8.

District Deputy: The "District Deputy" is a type of Mother Advisor for the District. She helps to guide the Rainbow Girls and provides guidance to the Mother Advisors. She also does a TON of paperwork to help keep us functioning!

District Line: "District Line" refers to the Worthy Advisor, Associate Worthy Advisor, Charity, Hope and Faith of the assemblies in the District.

District Meeting: The District Meeting is held once a year at one of the assemblies in our district to honor the Supreme Deputy (the Mother Advisor of Washington and Idaho Rainbow). It's a great time to get to know other girls in our district.

District Offices/Appointments: District Offices are appointed by the District Deputy and they include (but are not limited to) serving on committees such as talent, membership, ritual, service and pledge.
